Wasmer Schroeder & Company, a Naples-based, nationally recognized money management firm, is pleased to announce the addition of William (Bill) Grigsby as Head of Corporate Bond Research, effective May 5, 2008.

The firm is excited about the addition of Mr. Grigsby: says CEO, Martin M. Wasmer, “Bill brings a great deal of experience in the fixed income arena to our group; and we feel fortunate to have found such a qualified individual in the Naples, FL market”. Mr. Grigsby brings with him a wealth of knowledge and experience gleaned from 18 years in the industry with premier bond firms such as Cantor Fitzgerald & Co, First Albany Capital and Credit Suisse. Mr. Grigsby has spent the majority of his career in institutional sales and credit research, and has been a Chartered Financial Analyst since 1995.

Wasmer Schroeder & Company is a private, employee-owned investment firm with offices in Naples, Florida and Cleveland, Ohio; which specializes in fixed-income portfolio management for high-net-worth families, institutions, and wealth manager groups. The firm, founded in 1988, has 32 employees and over $2.3 billion in assets under management.
